THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

Classical Music Heard in Mrs. Hearst's

The National Geographic Society Handsomely Entertain - Pictures From Life-Dinners and Events.

Mrs. Hearst, whose entertainments are always of a magnificent character, gave a large circle of friends, jast night, another splendid treat by a musicale, participated in by twenty-four artists of Seidl's Orchestra, New York, with Mwe. Clementine de Vere Sapio as the sololst. Each room of the artistic house was decked with roses, white in some, pink in others, and American beauties in the picture gallery. There were programs folded in parchment covers ornamented with the monogram of the hostess in silver. After the music the company adjourned to the supper room down stairs, where supper was served from small tables, each having a center piece of American beauty roses. The company was large, and included both resident, official and diplomatic friends.

The British ambassador and Lady Paunce fore entertained a number of their younger acquaintances last night at dinner. The table was decorated with La France roses, and the effect was extremely rich and pretty. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare, Miss MaudWetmore, Miss Cameron, Miss Bonaparte, Miss Warder, Miss Philip, Miss Edith Patten, Miss Story, Miss Rush, Miss Barney, Miss Murphy, Miss Rodgers, Miss Nott. Count de Bulsseret, M. de So-mow, Mr. Von Breuning, Mr. Von Stumm, Mr. Wagner, Mr. Eastman, Mr. Andrews, Mr. Van Ness Philip, Mr. McCawley, Mr. George Howard, Mr. Myer, Earl of West-meath, Mr. Macleay, Mr. Robert Wallach and Mr. S.idell Rogers.

The marriage of Miss Helen Steele and Mr. Edward E. Gwynne of New York has been set for March 25, and will be a home wedding. Mr. Carroll Brown of Baltimore will be best man and Miss Steele will be the only bridesmaid. The wedding trip will be to Europe, and the couple will live in New York upon their return. Rev. Dr. Mackay Smith will perform the marriage ceremony.

If everything else in existence was as delightful as the pictures from "Life" given delightful as the pictures from "Life" given last night in the fine hall at Rauscher's pleasant emotions would be every hour sensations and troubles would be unheard-of occurrences. The stage was curtained off with Eastern portieres, and the drawing room scene, when disclosed, was all that was appropriate. Mr. Parker Mann was in charge of the performance, assisted by Miss Kennedy and Miss Louise Kauffmann. Mrs. Parker Mann also had an important part in the arrangements while the parpart in the arrangements, while the par-ticipants in the clever situations, Gibson-esque attitudes and artistic effects generally were Mrz. and Miss Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kauffmann. Mrs. Needham, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Hall and little Miss Mira Hall, Miss Kennedy, Miss Kauffmann, Miss Lindinger Miss Chambers, Miss Noyes, Miss Perkins, Miss Street, Mrs. Sturtevant, Miss Franks, Mrs. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kauffmann, Miss Davis, Miss Williams, Miss Barber, Lieut. Faison, Mr. Howe, Mr. W. E. Curtis, Mr. Mearns, Mr. Charles Kennedy, Mr. J. T. Granger, Mr. Warren Smith, Lieut. Barnett, Mr. Landon Burchell and Mr.

George Gibbs.
Mr. Rudolph Kauffmann made the announcements before each picture, and the pictures themselves did the rest. The last of the series was especially attractive and well received. It pertrayed "That delicious moment when you meet the nobleman your moment when you meet the nobleman your daughter has captured in Europe." His little Dundreary highness, enveloped in a ground-reaching ulster, his head protruding somewhat from a golf cap, and his face framed in lovely, golden-brown whiskers, was portrayed by Miss Mollie Davis, and so successfully that no one unacquainted with the fact could have recognized her. The floor was cleared later and a micareme dance followed, varied by refresh, ments on the lower floor. The affair was given for the Art Students' League, and given for the Art Students' League, and every seat in the hall was taken.

last evening by the National Geographic Society, in honor of the Venezuelan boundary commission, was one of the handsomest affairs of the winone of the handsomest affairs of the win-ter. More than 500 people, prominent in official, scientific and social life, enjoyed the hospitality of the society and crowded the parlors and banquet hall of the Arling-

The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with American beauty roses and smilax, while the walls were hung with a lavish display of American flags. During the earlier part of the evening the guests spent the time pleasantly in conversation, and later an elegant supper was served in the big banguet ball the big banquet hall.

The diplomatic corps was well repre sented, the Venezuelan legation being present in a body, headed by Minister Andrade. Mr. David T.
